Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 16, 2022 (Hong Kong time), MGM Grand Paradise Limited (“MGM Grand Paradise”), a non-wholly owned subsidiary of MGM China Holdings Limited (“MGM China”), an indirect subsidiary of MGM Resorts International (the “Company”), entered into a 10-year gaming concession contract to operate games of chance or other games in casinos in Macau commencing on January 1, 2023 (the “Concession Contract”) through December 31, 2032. The terms of the Concession Contract are substantially the same as the sub-concession contract previously entered into, except for the changes to comply with the new gaming law and different commercial arrangements. Pursuant to the Concession Contract, MGM Grand Paradise is entitled to operate a total of 750 gaming tables and 1,700 electric or mechanical gaming machines, which compares to 552 gaming tables and 1,701 electric or mechanical gaming machines currently in operation.

The Concession Contract provides that MGM Grand Paradise will pay the Macau government 35% of gross gaming revenue and a fixed annual premium of MOP 30 million (approximately US$3.7 million) with a variable premium based on the number of games in operation in addition to certain other levies as more fully described in the Concession Contract. In addition, the Concession Contract requires MGM Grand Paradise to have a minimum share capital and to undertake to implement investment projects in an amount equal to MOP 16.7 billion (approximately US$2 billion). MGM Grand Paradise is also required to provide, effective January 1, 2023, a MOP 1 billion (approximately US$125 million) bank guarantee to support MGM Grand Paradise’s legal and contractual obligations under the Concession Contract.

The foregoing summary of the Concession Contract is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete text of the Concession Contract, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ending December 31, 2022 to be filed with the SEC.
